

Ten Ways

TO TALK WITH SOMEONE ABOUT THEIR FAITH

Talking with each other about our faith is important, but it's not always easy to know how to get the ball rolling. Here are ten questions that pastors, parents, youth leaders, elders, and others can ask to start deep and meaningful conversations about faith.

- 1 In what situations or places do you feel most alive as a child of God?
- 2 Who in your life (past or present) has given you a taste of God's love, and how?
- 3 How has your walk with God changed in the past few years?
- 4 What experience in the past year has been challenging to your faith, and why?
- 5 How have you experienced hope in the midst of challenges?
- 6 Describe a worship service that particularly blessed you. Why was it so meaningful?
- 7 What experiences or people help you know that you belong to Jesus and to your church community?
- 8 How has our church helped you discover and use your strengths and gifts?
- 9 What longings do you have for yourself, your family, your community, or your church?
- 10 How can I pray for you?
